The Sun Is A Blessing

The University Papers #109

Restore The Sun To Her Proper Place In You

This communication was received October 29, 1996 at Puerto Vallarta, Mexico

*Do not be concerned with your survival.
I will see you through all this.
Do not try to save your lives, to survive.
Know that I AM with you and we are one,
and we will walk this together.*

*This is a time of great upheaval
when Earth is changing her garment to light.
You are my beloveds. I have not forgotten you.
Walk with me.
We will all come through this together.
I AM Sananda, the first and the last.
That is all.*

Released by the Melchizedek Headquarters:

The release of the Sun Energy

The Energy of the Central Sun is reaching out to you, beckoning to you to leave the attachments of this earthly existence. Stay not longer than is necessary; there are new assignments to be given.

Are you ready to make your ascension? If so, we (the Hierarchal Command Center for Earth) will help you to attain and to adjust to the dimensional frequency necessary for your ascension and progression into light fields of Intelligence.

Essentially your assignment is to adapt the Earth's energy to a higher frequency and join forces with the light realms, as they connect vibratory records to Earth's consciousness that will completely alter her rhythm and frequency to that of a planet of light. These solar records are essential and must be written into Earth's body so that she is really conscious of herself as living light.

You are as a body of energy that is to be awakened to the Creator vibratory system. This seed of awareness rests within you. Many see this light as the Eternal Flame, the Creative Power within your heart and mind. Keep your attention on that light within. Do not let it wander for a moment. Keep your eye on the light.

I say come to the light and be the lamp unto all creation, the living fire I AM. In this time - you have a week to do this in (this was spoken to a seminar group at Puerto Vallarta) - you will stabilize in the Christ energy and the body of light. You will see this body as the body that you operate in and through. You will leave the denser body entirely during your stay here¹ and have no other body operating for you save this energy body I call the light body. Be aware of this.

Practice and we will see how you do with this exercise. Be lamps unto all creation and wear the light proudly in the glory of the Sun.² Let no thought of self enter into the picture. Believe only in the I AM, nurture it and release it.

Come back to the center and there live and have your being. This is the creative purpose of your life now. And I am ready to serve as the Father of this planet. Let the Christ records be open to you and know that Light as yourself. Be clothed with spiritual energy now. Identify with that light body and partake of none else, for this is the body you will walk in and will live in. This is the body you came to show forth as the great light of the Central Sun. This is enough for the moment. Go to sleep with this. Remind each other of your purpose now. You have one week and that is enough. Be clothed with Spirit now and realize the Sun as yourself.

(Though you may not have attended the recent gathering at Puerto Vallarta, you can take up Sananda's words and act upon them yourself. You may wish to set aside a week to apply what the Master has given as valuable exercise in light body awareness.- C.)

For the light body

It is the contact with your Creative Spark that keeps the body a-light. That is why it is wise to keep your minds on the light, ever conscious of the creative Intelligence you are. Keep your eye single. Let the nature of your true self shine through. And then, as Jesus has said, the whole body will be filled with light. If you are focused on the physical, or on the darkness, or on duality, then the body loses the light. It decreases in light. It dims. You know, the miracle of the Sun is that you become it.

Your body has been trapped in the physical, material world. Now it is time to let it go. Let it have more freedom to dance the winds of the cosmos, to dance the winds of cosmic energy, to know itself as light!

Here are some thoughts about the light body.

Balance must be maintained at all times. Balance of mind, body and emotions. Then harmony is restored. Keep that balance. Quiet the physical body. Quiet the emotions. Quiet the mind. Then you have peace. Now, when these three bodies (physical, emotional or astral, and mental) unite, you have the light body. You have a conscious body. The rhythm has been restored. That's what light means: conscious. You have peace when you have these three in unity. Three is a magic number. It is the number of the Trinity. It is the Law of the Universe set in motion. And you keep that balance.

Watch that there is harmony of action and reaction. Response to another individual or individuals is a play of energy, the dance of energy. It is very beautiful when God meets God.

When all is quiet and at peace, the high self releases itself as cosmic energy. Then you have the light and the vacuum is filled. And harmony is restored. When there is a disruption in the physical body, it is a signal that you are not in harmony with the other two bodies. This is why it is suggested to the initiate that you do not try to fix the physical. Instead, look at the three lower bodies together and ask yourself, "Which one is out of sync?" Come back into alignment. When harmony is restored, the physical disturbance drops away.

Keep all in balance until harmony is restored. Then the natural response will occur.

¹We were in a protected energy field, free of all negative suggestion and influence. -C.

²Original creation is called Sun also.

The Sun Is A Blessing

That is the real meaning of Be still and know that I am God. It is a stillness of mind, body and emotions that permits the high self to enter and to live in the place of consciousness.

“Physical exercise” as we know it, is not permitted in the light body. “The light body” dwells on a master plane, so that there is a coordination of physical, mental, emotional at that level of consciousness. Meditate on this. The consciousness of the light body is a new dimension of expression. What you have as physical exercise must become rhythmic movement in the Spirit of love and light. It is a new field of energy you are entering. There is a coordination of all life moving with you. The balance must be maintained at all times. Principles of love and light are to be learned. The laughter and song of the Cosmic Mother will be heard now. It is Her delight. And this allows your Creative Energy to express in a softer tone.

It matters little what happens. It is how you react or respond to the happening that is all important to your progress as a human being. Be gentle with everything and everyone, including yourself.

Through your “third eye” you can see and keep watch over the balanced three: the mind, the body, the emotions. They each must be in place, in harmony with one another.

The lesson of supply

The currents of supply are actively engaged as the three lower bodies are balanced and in harmony serving the whole. If there is too much physical doing and not enough love in motion, supply may well be stopped or blocked. If there is anxiety and/or fear then the overload and imbalance of the emotional body may cause a blockage of the supply flowing into expression. If there is too much mental activity, too much figuring, calculating, and not enough gentle faith, there is blockage in the supply area. It is best to keep all bodies in harmony so that the divine supply can and will actualize, answering all your needs. This is good advice for all. Please keep in mind that supply is not only money; it is satisfying work, loving companionship, radiant health. God is your supply; but to enable the God-Spirit to flow into your life expression, the bodies must be aligned and open to receive. When we are in balance, the supply is actively vibrating through us as oneness. It is an effortless flow.

Supply is love

Receive love everywhere. The Universe gives love through anyone and everyone. Monitor your heart. Do you find that with some people you open your heart wide and give generously of your affection, while with others you actually close your heart, perhaps refusing to release any feeling of love and blessing? What happens when the heart is closed? It is unnatural, isn't it, if God is love?

As you allow universal love - the Universe loving as God is-ing - to flow through, you are receiving supply! If money is needed and you are permitting divine love to flow through your being without judgment or criticism, then that very love you are releasing through your heart can and will actually take form as money! However, if you refuse to accept love unconditionally through this person or that person, you are harming yourself because you are cutting off your supply which is the blessing of God.

As love moves through the currents of its own creative energy, it becomes money if necessary, or a bowl of spaghetti, whatever is the need of the moment! Love is supply. It is sometimes said that love is the fulfiller.

God is supplying you by being. Be-ing and love are one and the same.

Is there someone or something in your life that you are not receiving in love? Are you rejecting love as it comes to you through many different sources of Myself? Who are you cutting off that you might embrace?

Let the love dance. This dance of the I AM Presence is the play of energy that holds worlds together and places a crown upon your head.

Return to the CONSCIOUSNESS of God as BEING. In this awareness you will experience only God, God's kingdom of oneness, harmony and love. God must respond to God. I AM THAT I AM. In the consciousness of oneness there is only God or love.

An Additional Message From Sananda

The world that you have known will disappear. It will completely disappear. There will be no world as you have known it. Your demonstration of the light body is very important now, for it will show others what can be done. Try and align as best you can to the Inner Voice - that voice in you that is constantly and consistently instructing you in the ways of the divine plan.

We are sisters and brothers watching over you from other realms. We wish you well. We want you all to rise in ascension and to release all holds and attachments on this world, for it will be torn from you if you insist, my brothers and sisters, on holding on. Remember this world that you live in is no longer a world. It is not part of our Universe of universes. Be lifted and return to the natural plan of this Earth.

This is a blessing from Sananda.

In the days to come

The plan of ascension is being stepped up. We will be taking many off the planet now for they are not able to contain the energy we are sending in³ to assist the planet in her change.

Everyone will be taken off the planet. We will translate some, others will find themselves falling asleep and waking in another world. You see, when there is a dimensional shift, such as Earth is moving through, there are few if any who can handle such a shift. The shift will not be gradual but sudden and this can cause many to tighten in fear. It is a dimensional change.

I, Crystal, asked how this "lift off" might occur? How will it be accomplished? The following answer was given:

By vitalizing them into another dimension and then reenergizing them for this one again.⁴ Once Earth has stabilized in her dimensional shift she will receive many back into her frequency. There will be an acclimatizing to Earth - an agreement - enabling both the human beings and Earth herself to respond to one another in a gentler form.

What I, Crystal, was realizing was that there had been a decision to increase Earth's vibratory rate so that she could spiral into her new orbit or place in the solar system of cosmic government. Humans and creation itself will be translated into another sphere, then allowed to return again after they have been oriented to the new Earth of cosmic being. Please be aware that it is the role of this University of Melchizedek to prepare you not only for this shifting consciousness, but to also give you further teachings on the preparation needed to return and help Earth in her new place of revelation.

A question was asked, "Would it be the fifth dimension here on Earth after the shift? If so, how would people adapt to the fifth dimension? The answer given was this: It will take more than this shift of Earth for them to graduate to the fifth dimension. But there are schools regulating this effort. That is one of the reasons this school was brought to Earth.

Once the Earth has been cleansed and thoughtforms lifted of negativity, humans will be able to grasp and understand cosmic truths where they have not been able to previously.

May I call your attention to this. The "lifting process" is a spiraling into a new dimension, a new and higher vibration, that will be like a new world or energy sphere. That is the process you are going into. Does that make sense to you? Rather than think that you will be carried by an angelic fleet, I would suggest that you contemplate the worlds of light as worlds within yourself! I feel you would be on safer ground doing this.

³This message was released to me while I was in Puerto Vallarta, late October 1996. The increase in airline accidents is apparent and may well be a way of lifting some into safe quarters in the heavenly spheres. -Crystal ⁴It is a solar shift where man and God are one. The Presence will abide on Earth. Humans who will be returning will carry with them a relationship to the Godhead that will correspond to Earth's relationship to the Solar Sun, or the system of government energized by our Solar Father or Solar Logos.

The Solar Cities

These are the Light Cities on the ground. They are the forces of Light that have been programmed into the areas designated. They house the energy fields of the overseeing City of Light, which is their sister city. Without these Cities of Light being placed and vibrating in the higher dimensions of Earth, the New Reality of Divine Light and Life could not be made manifest.

You will find that there are Light Cities above every major vortex on Earth. Unfortunately, there have been only a few who have been awakened and alerted to the vibration of the emerging Cities of Light as Solar Cities and Solar Cells of the Eternal Flame. We will be now initiating the gathering of souls who are linked to particular vortexes and areas of high service vibration. The building and forming of the Light Cities on Earth will begin. These Cities of Light with their vortex command centers will be models of the Light Cities above, and they will change the ways of the planet as you have known her.

Communities will be formed within these Cities of Light and they will be as examples of the Way that the Master Jesus taught to His disciples. They will become the units or presences of Divine Love and they will be open to all who seek the quiet of the Master, the harmony of all life in the sanctuary and the healing of the Holy Spirit.

Thus the Great Silence will rule in these communities, and out of the Silence will come the Heart of the Solar Son. The sacred path for each one is marked. And those who walk the path in harmony of spirit, seeking to rise into the higher dimensions of Light, will find comfort within the Light fields of these communities and a sense of home.

The building program for the new planet is about to begin and the Cities of Light are preparing to grace the land, forming and then anchoring the Light Government.

Many friends and loving assistants will be both in the invisible and overhead, circling the Earth and pouring Light upon her. Step forward, those who have been called. It is time.

Holy Cities of Light

They are the creative circuits (extensions of the Creative Daughter/Universe Mother Spirit/Holy Spirit) from which the new Solar Cities will be programmed and built. The nature of the Cities of Light is to harmonize all energies together into one field, to actualize the New World and to build communities of the new race of Man.

The legitimacy of the Cities can be felt in the vibrational tone of those within the City. The training to uphold the Cities of Light has been developing within the individuals who will take up the task of creating into form the Divine Presence within every brick and tower and within the schoolbooks of the children who have been born into this Light.

This is a time of great rejoicing on this planet and we are troubled no more by the offenses of generations past. All is in order and returned to the Light. What now must take place is a development of the CONSCIOUSNESS of this order.

Everyone is called, but few will come for the initial stages of the building and the forming of the Solar Cities. Because the discipline of LISTENING to the Inner Voice - the Truth Circuit of the Universe and beyond - calls on the divine Priesthood of Melchizedek to become ACTIVATED within the individual, only the sincere disciple and chela will be able at first to stand and serve in the power of God. Everyone is called but few will come at first. But later, as pilgrims of the Light venture forth to test and experience the Cities, word will spread and Cities will grow larger in their function and embrace. All will come in the end and all will be touched, as the Solar Life forms on Earth and the radiance of God the Supreme line the heavens.

The Building of the City and Its Resurrection Code

The Solar Cities are built from the top down; that is, from the capstone of the pyramid to the foursquare foundation. Etheric guards are placed at each corner of the designated

Cities of Light

foundation. They resonate the Temple Presence or City Foursquare, as the City is built and anchored on earth. The Capstone is reached only by higher consciousness. Priests and Priestesses, especially trained and graduated from the Melchizedek Schools of Creative Power, serve as the channels for the Temple Guardians and the vibrating essence of the Vortex Temple.

Every invisible, etheric City of Light now blazing forth into the realms of Planet Earth has within its vibrational Code a Temple-like structure in the form of a pyramid. The Solar City is the out-picturing of the inner Light City Temple. To restore the Light to the planet these Temples of Light must return to Earth, as Solar Cities or Light Cities, and they must perform the duties of God on Earth and through the Teachers of Melchizedek. You are privileged to be a part of this if you are called.

Seal of Melchizedek

The Discipline and the Joy

The communities that are trained (and they have been receiving this training for eons) to build and to maintain the radiation for the Light City are, in truth, adepts of vibrational control and the building of new worlds. They have been taught to maintain a discipline of alignment with the Inner Voice and to walk, speak and live through the higher chakras as Christ lived on earth.

The Creative Force or Creative Daughter will find Her place in the vortex center of the City. Much like the Eternal Flame is guarded and nurtured by the Melchizedek Order of Priests and Priestess, so is the Presence of the Creative Power - as the Daughter/Mother Spirit - attended as a Fire within the center of the City. What cannot be seen by the naked eye, yet is real and true and present, is the pyramid Temple, which has been lowered to preserve and contain the Holy Fire of the Creative Daughter-Universe Mother Spirit. This Flame is the projection of the Eternal Flame and must be maintained by the Temple Guardians. This glorious Creative Power is the spiritual energy that flows out and through the Solar City, uniting and vibrating the joy of Oneness and peace of God as an alignment Center for Universe capacity.

What you are hearing and reading now are the instructions that you may find also in your heart. We are ready to begin.

World Mother Scripts

Vol. 4: 18

We are building Cities of the Light throughout the planet. This is a Universe mandate and it is coming from the holy spheres of the Divine Mother, Universe Daughter and Holy Spirit. We will see that all these divine Cities that are mandated and ordered to come forth are immediately initiated. Their source is from the position of the Creative Daughter/Universe Mother Spirit, who is operating in the Consciousness of World Mother and Sanctuary. This announcement moves into objectification as the World Mother Office oversees the building of all Cities of Light and registers these Cities in the Solar Realm as consciousness - not divided - but at One. The Unification Principle now rules throughout the vibration of these Cities. Go to your posts, My Children, as you are summoned. I AM the Universe Mother speaking to you today.

May 12, 2009

The Light of God is shining on you, and the Hierarchy aids you on your return. Lord Sananda gave the following message on July 5, 2008. It is meant for you and for your service in the ascension of the Earth. Please take these words seriously for they are right and true. They have great power in them.

I have sent a rescue squad to help in this energy of change and relocation. Call on them. They are here to help. Say unto them that I have sent them to you and you are grateful. They are as angels of the high dimensions eager to assist in any way they can. Call on them and they will be by your side. I say, by your side.

I AM Sananda

July 5, 2008

A Message from Sananda, Vol. 2: 72

Now this message is filled with truth and offering of God. There is one condition: Serve the Christ! Serve the Light of His Incoming Kingdom, the name of Jesus. This is not a dogmatic, religious demand. It is a persuasion into the Light; for Christ means Light. All consuming Light as emanating from the Presence of God. Many of you, if not most of you, have read, studied and received illumination concerning such words as Christ, Light, Kingdom Consciousness and the name of Jesus. It is a path of our Creator Michael, Universe Father-Son, lifting all into a World of Light—the Creator's World of Divine Love. Believe on this message and ask that you might be provided with all things needed in the service of our Lord and Creator.

Those who follow Me will be saved.

The Light will fill their vessels and they shall be called "The Immortals."

Heaven on Earth

All the dreams and visions that you carry - some since childhood - are also the dreams and visions of the Creator. If this be so - and it most certainly is - angel partners wait to complete the "impossible dream" assignment with you. And by angels I mean all from this side of Being to the invisible dimensions: light workers, pastors and rabbis, rich and poor, ascended masters, saints and archangels. They are all waiting for your call and statement of intent! You were never meant to build your temples of light alone or your gardens and fields where angels play! You are a coordinated being on both sides of the veil and all that surrounds you can be transmuted by the name of Jesus. Currents of Life and Light run through that Name. It is the place of the new creation, a vibratory field of immense power and light. You will not see it any place else but on Earth.

Within that field, all wait to gather together in His Name to bring about the magic of new creation - your dreams and visions!

Circulating within the Name - field of Creative Power - are Solar Angels, the Planetary Prince and other divisions of the Creator's Hierarchy. "Seek and it shall be given you," They say. "We will help you achieve your goal, the goal that has been given you since the Beginning, the goal seeded within your heart-mind for this time and this hour! We want to help!"

The World Mother Script for July 6, 2008 reads:

Have you come to save the planet or are you here for your own spiritual advancement? Because once you resolve this matter in your consciousness you will take the right road. There are two roads in this connecting energy field. One leads to service in the Christ dimension almost immediately, while the other resolves past karma and looks forward to a future of bliss. See now the difference and make your choice. You might question: Might I be on both paths? The answer is a NO! The one is not the same as the other. The time has come to right the wrongs and bring

Help Will Come

planetary justice into manifestation. Keep the song of your heart strong and pure. And place your first foot forward as you serve Christ in alignment with the purpose of your incarnation. With this I close.

My Son is now in office as the Planetary Prince. This time serve Him and He will rejoice with you in a New World of Light. (Vol. 3:13)

Remember that anything you do for Me is supplied. We are brother and sister in the Light graduation of this Earth. All things needed will be given. But you must ask with full authority; and you will gain recognition through the Cosmos and through the heavenly spheres.

Knowing the Brotherhood of Light is activated by your call and your request for assistance. You are not alone! And many on the "other side" are waiting. They will move instantly at your request. Do not burden yourself with a task too great for one or two. Call on the angels and the Hierarchy of Ascended Masters to join with you in this glorious time of building and restoration. God wills it and is with your every prayer and plea. This is urgent.

The Brotherhood of Man

Normally, I would offer this type of information within the pages of the Solar News. However, because of the content and its message on unity and Universe Brother-Sisterhood, it speaks well to the Consciousness that is rapidly unfolding within humanity to the glory and the pleasure of God!

The conscious realization and the acceptance that we are all part of a great plan to ignite the Light of this planet bring immense power to play. Even as night must fall, so day must break. Ignorance becomes brilliant formation of declared oneness. Joined with the people on Earth are the Hierarchy and the Solar Angels from many dimensions of God's Expression. The awakening out of sleep into awareness of one body of Light completes the journey for some and continues the journey for all those who are destined to build the new Cities of Light on this planet Harmony.

To join consciously with your brothers and sisters in other dimensions and to realize that you are a unit working together on a Christ mission for this Earth showers you with gold and translates effort into success.

Where you were learning to develop your spiritual capabilities and capacities as a lone figure of light, now you enter a new system where the Brotherhood of Man is not only evident but also supreme. Walking with the angels, serving with the Great White Brotherhood and the Order of Melchizedek, unites the dreamers and the visionaries into one thrust of divine intent.

How would you like the Great Magician the Master Saint Germain to not only act as your master and teacher but as your co-worker in manifestation of the divine Plan? What if the angels were not only assisting you in your prayers and self-seeking but also were beside you now, integrating with you, to raise the Earth and lift all God's creatures?

Of Trees and Stone

We are not finished with the harmony of Earth and the divine assistance offered. Within the earth itself are many cities of light waiting to open and to be sanctuaries once again. And within these sacred grounds are trees ready to restore earth and her people to life everlasting. Indwelling every tree is the massive creative power sent by Love. This power, propelled by the Love of the Creator for all life, spirals and turns seeking to heal cities of darkness and hearts that have hardened and forgotten The Creator's Intent for all life. Many of the strongest and most powerful trees are rooted in the great temples of light no longer visible, yet thriving beneath the earth's surface. These huge and glorious tree-like temples are the transmuting energy from one world to another.

So it is with stones - crystal and lava deposits - that guard the sacred portals of unseen worlds.

The forests green, the seas and oceans, the rocky sands, all carry the offer of healing. They, too, are part of the Creator's plan and they are as angels of the plant and mineral kingdoms

who are with you as planetary guardians. Ask the tree for healing; ask the tree to take away your grief, your sins. Wrap your arms around the great and loving trunk of the tree and release yourself into it to be loved and to be healed. Absorb the green of the leaves and tall grasses and feel the secret of growth and abundance. Open the door of your heart to the colorful array of flowers and absorb their dance of joy.

Now can you understand that all life is sacred and in companionship with your vision and your dream? God has placed these beautiful beings as Himself to give you everything you need. You are supplied. Look around you. Feel the joy of companionship as your heart swells with love and commitment to radiate God's plan for Earth and all creation. This is a team effort! Can you feel it?

Song of the Tree Spirits And All the Medicine World

We can all serve together, Can't we?

Of course we can!

The creator meant it so.

*No need for sickness,
Or of death.*

We are all committed to the One,

Each of us has a duty.

*Together we are in everlasting Grace
And purity of motion.*

There is form or outpicturing according to the dimensional attitudes. The God center is the body and there is no other body. Just as the world is changing, so is the world you have created as the physical body. It is not physical anymore; it is light.

The Sun Is Our Father And Our Mother

When the body is drawn up into the Sun, it is called resurrected. This is the body of light, the body of the Sun. Test your body right now. Can you feel the energy change in you, as you experience this upliftment of your body into the Sun? Can you sense the process of resurrection coming through your whole soul into your alignment field, your everpresent awareness of who you are right now? Can you see the smiling faces of each cell, as each cell is embraced by this light and processed into it as the vibrant rays of the Sun?

Very softly now, breathe the light into your soul consciousness that you might be awakened and made aware of the true light of Consciousness. Let the GodSelf radiate now as the Divine Sun of your life, for this GodSelf is the Sun and is present as the forever life as you.

Be clothed in light now. Your molecular structure is changing. Begin to see this change in every living cell and sense the resurrection, this process within your own system. The gates are open to the Sun. Walk there please. Be blessed and joyous and forever loved.

Now see the Earth going through that very same resurrection that you have been permitted to see yourself go through. See the Sun reaching out to embrace the Earth. See the Earth release her present body into the Sun that she might be a radiant light - a planet so filled with light that she is like the greatest star of this solar system. Remember Michael, your Creator, has walked here. His steps will vibrate on Earth. As the Earth becomes like a Sun, so shall His footsteps blaze forth ever to be remembered and kept sacred. Now see Michael's footsteps as they truly are, as we all see them from the faraway places of our cosmos. See those footsteps blazing with light. A fulfillment and a continuing promise of that which has been and which ever shall be. As Earth releases herself into the Sun, all creatures great and small are lifted into the blessed light. Each and everyone is valued! And as each and every one is loved the same, each and every one experiences this joyous call, this Solar Call of translation.

The New Atoms

Intelligent atoms, available in the higher chakras or centers of Man, will act instantly to

manifest the thought given. These intelligent atoms, corresponding to angelic substances stored in the brain are eager to form of themselves that which is passed to them as thought, vision, desire.

At the Crown Chakra or center the cosmic word abides.⁶ This Word is frequency of Divine Law, the Melchizedek order. When you are able to stabilize at that level, or dimension of consciousness, the atomic energy changes significantly. The atoms themselves that make up creation are actively waiting for any and all thoughtforms. In this dimension of consciousness these intelligent atoms vibrate at a different pitch entirely from that of the lower dimensional planes. They will respond immediately to your needs and creative visions. This is why The Master's Paper emphasizes the necessity for you to remain in the light, conscious of the light at all times. You will be fed and clothed now by this pitch of God awareness.

⁶Here the cosmic brain resides. It records everything you desire and wish for and connects your wish to these atoms to be manifest or formed as living tissue of Life.
