The Moment That Christ Was Born on Earth

A tiny child born on earth. What was the miracle of this?
And why did Earth shake so in that moment?

I was born a savior unto men.

Whose voice speaks? What manner of child is this? And are there many children today, all speaking with this same voice, initiating us into a new world of creative power and divine love?

Two thousand years ago -- as time passes -- a life was given to this planet, a word that was so significant that it has lingered with us.

I gave you My Self.

The day we must remember is Christmas in our hearts. For if we can do this, we will discover the secret to eternal life, immortality and transformation.

If you will live in me and I in you, then earth peace will be inevitable.

There will be no death on planet Earth, no cries of the children suffering to be heard, no burials into the ground, no weeping and wailing.

On the day I was born, I made you perfect in me. We are consummated in the higher realms as One. Know this and you are free.

The Earth was flooded with light for a moment when Jesus was born. Every single cell of Earth lit up and welcomed Him in. Not one was left untouched. Not one was forgotten. Golden light permeated everything and compassion was born.

To this love you are dedicated and to this heart. I radiate my Self to you that you might be born in me. Together we are One.

Jesus was never crucified. He could not be. He was light forgiving this land and its people. He dwelt amongst us as the light. He was called wonderful to the degree that you are wonderful in me.

I have come again. This time as I AM in you to transfigure this land and complete my mission. I will not return to my Father until all returns with me consciously. I have come as the Christ in you and I AM with you as Sananda, Lord of Life.

Be ye restored to the Beginning. Ancient of Days, take this Scroll and read...

I, the Ancient of Days, read the word of light. Sananda takes the Office of Planetary Prince. He governs with his heart and he brings life into a formation of the one Son who God wills you to be. Solen Aum Solen.

Peace and love be unto all on this day. The light still shines!

The Truth About Jesus

What is it? Why did it happen? And why does it haunt us still?

Are we all part of the Crucifixion of Jesus? Is this the powerful climax to our Revelation and Understanding of the greater part?

These are my questions to you, O Spirit of the Light.

Have the Power back that was given you in the Beginning. The Power that is your own birthright. And as you take this Power back, be respectful of it, ever mindful that it is the movement of God in you seeking Its dominion on earth as in Heaven.

Seal of Melchizedek

At the Cross Jesus released an energy field that was at one with God the Father. It is the presence of divine Love and Light on this planet now and you are feeling it as the Body of Christ or I AM as a collective energy field, electrical in content and bearing down upon this planet as the Solar Son.

The reason Jesus deliberately sacrificed Himself into mass consciousness and further made Himself available to all humanity was to change humanity back into its original form as the GodSelf or God's Self and Son.

Following the Lord's defeat of Satan and his cohorts during the "forty days in the wilderness," Jesus could have translated from His post on Earth and returned to His higher state of Creator Michael (Universe Creator). But the Master saw through the game of the flesh and He saw that the defeat of satanic rule was not enough. He had to show man ascension. He had to gather all up, He knew, into the Father (Universal Will) and join humanity to the original Thought Form of Christ in Man. Thus, He cast His immortal Seed -- the Seed of Christ -- into the fertile moment of His Crucifixion. The world changed when this occurred; though we would not see this or take part in this change for over two thousand years.

The Light of Christ forgiveness and unconditional Love pierced the planet Earth and planted the Seed of the One who would reign Supreme in the New World.

Much has been written and presented through these Melchizedek Records, yet what we must understand in this moment is the Second Coming is the renewal of the Christ Body on Earth and the full baptism of His Face and Hands upon us all. We are emerging as a collective unit of the Christ Presence. It is more than we can imagine. It is a full measure of Divine Being fulfilling us all as a Body. Not many bodies, but one Body. From the original Body of God, released by Jesus on the Cross, will emerge God the Supreme. And therein is the Word.

JESUS IN THE TEMPLE

Jesus as a little boy was well loved and admired by his childhood friends and companions. He was very friendly to everyone and always listened intently to thoughts and questions his friends would have for him. The children who gravitated to him knew that he had answers to their questions that were both wise and considerate. He was a very popular boy!

As the story is told in scripture, Jesus was twelve years of age when he, Mary, and Joseph were visiting Jerusalem. As usual, the courts and areas for shopping as well as worship were immensely crowded with bustling people, pushing and jostling against one another. It was an easy place for a boy to become lost. Mary knew this, so she had kept a watchful eye on her young, energetic son.

Perhaps Mary and Joseph had become preoccupied turned their heads and their minds away from Jesus to speak with a friend for a brief moment but much to the concern of both parents they realized that Jesus had left their side and was no longer visible. They searched -- their concern increasing -- but no Jesus could be found.

In the meantime, Jesus stepped purposely into the temple where he found a group of rabbis and important officiates of the temple sitting amongst themselves. When the group saw Jesus approaching, many of them impatiently and forcefully told Jesus to leave immediately. How dare he approach in this manner without an invitation? Jesus stood his ground and showed no reaction to being received in such a manner. But there was one who held up his hand and silenced the others.

"Let the boy stay," he said. "Let us hear what he has to say and how we can be of service to him." The others mumbled but were quiet as the Rabbi continued. "I recognize you. You are Jesus and we know your good parents well. What question do you have for us, Jesus?"

All turned to the boy.

"Yes, I have a question," Jesus said. "Why does our Father in heaven not hear us?"

The kind Rabbi was silent for a moment. When he spoke all heads were turn toward him in expectation. "That is not true, my son. Our God hears you through your Rabbi. We are the ones who must take your words to Him."

"You are holding back your people," Jesus said. "You have no right to do this."

Now anger filled the room despite the Rabbi who held up his hand to quiet the group. Yet, Jesus continued undaunted and unafraid.

"You see, our Father does not know who is Rabbi and who is not." More mumblings and a few stood shaking in their fury.

"Our Father wants to listen to every one. And if you would tell the people this, they would hear His voice and know His will." Then Jesus raised his arms and said, "This temple was built so all could hear the Father's word. That is what temples are for. They are to be kept clean so that all can hear. Your duty as Rabbis and learned men is to prepare the way for My Father's voice that He can be heard and worshiped in the hearts of every one."

At that moment, Mary and Joseph appeared breathless from their search. And realizing that their son was speaking amongst the others, they held their quiet and stepped back so as not to be seen to listen.

And now the kind Rabbi was disturbed. He stepped forward and sternly asked, "How do you know all this, young man? Who tells you these things?"

Jesus answered, "The Kingdom of God within me tells me this. If you would only teach your people how to listen to our Father's voice, they would have the answers to their questions and the help they needed. But you feign from this because you fear to lose your positions of importance and authority."

Then Jesus approached Mary and Joseph and he took their hands in his. He glanced thoughtfully at Joseph and Mary. And to his mother's silent question, "My son, why did you do this?" ...

Jesus answered, "I knew my Father wanted me here, so I came. What you must know is that God is within each one of us and He will design our paths and show us our destiny."

And they left without another word being said.

What sayest you in the reading of this story? And what manner of mind does it leave you with?

Let this be read on Christmas Eve, and let all remember the meaning of My birth in you.

The Resurrection

This refers to the resurrection of all humanity. It is the enlivening of My Breath throughout My system. It is the Creator at large.

You who have known Me in My human body are released from death. My immortal soul clings to you as it did in life 2,000 years ago. You are captured in My radiance and you are singled out by Me to become a shining light to others that I might live with them even as I do with you.

You have become the Word, yet you do not know it. What manner of a Lord am I that I would not take you with Me?

I have come that you might see Me as yourself, your Mighty Self. This is the solar union I speak of. The gate is now open.

In the resurrection of Jesus, the human body was resurrected. Your form has changed. It is the vessel for Christ Consciousness; it is the body of light for all to see and know.

Eat lightly now. Retrain your body so that it seeks its nourishment from your inner being, the divine Source. You are to realize now who you are. You are to claim that central Source as your own higher self, your GodSelf. Know who you are and take up your mantle of light, for I AM with you in this light.

What Happened at Jesus' Ascension

I reprogrammed humanity and gave them a new body.

I let go of the earthly body to make the transition into My new body, which is the Creator's body or dimension. That body pervades all space and time and is the rhythmic sequence of all life. This body that is My ascended body will out-picture as the man Jesus whom you have known and loved, yet as a picture without substance. It is a Consciousness that you will see, an emanation of Truth.

Consciousness can manifest and translate itself into the material field, but not be of the human condition. I, Jesus, have created a body without end. We are one. And the lessons learned within the mortal sphere are yours and mine. They are ours.

Behold, I have ascended that you might ascend and know who you are. You are the center and the circle, the Son and the Daughter, the Creator and the created. You are the Life I AM.

Come now into My body. We are one. I AM Jesus of Nazareth and I AM bringing you home.

Please Note:

The Word of the Omnipresent Master

Why did Jesus allow the Crucifixion?

I entered Earth as a human being.

I wanted to raise humanity through my sacrifice. And I resisted the temptation of using my Power. If I had applied my Power, I would have prevented your ascension.

What I came to do, I did. But I wanted to do more.

I made Man holy through my life.

Through my surrender to God, I released powerful forces

(emanations of my own Being) that are now actively engaged in a mass surrender and ascension.

All humanity is in the process of being lifted through me.

The force of my ascension is actively engaged on earth and is lifting all humanity out of death into life
as one Body, as the Son.

Say now with deliberation: THE BODY OF CHRIST.

This moves all creation into higher spheres. These words are the liberating factor and key to ascension in the field of Father-Mother God.

Concentrating and focusing on the crucifixion alone without the message of Overcoming and Victory denies the Spirit and rejects the blessing of the Christ. It will stop you from ascending and imprison you as a victim of a false world. Persecution and crucifixion in its many forms will continue for you until you let go of the imagined suffering of Jesus. Restore the true meaning of Jesus' Life in your consciousness. His was a Life of self-mastery and triumph over evil and death.

Your subconscious mind will act and react immediately when given a picture, such as Jesus on the cross. And if emotion is included with the picture, you may be sure your subconscious mind will automatically reproduce and manifest a life for you on the cross! Be alert to the visions and pictures that you find yourself watching and agreeing with! Your subconscious mind, eager to serve you, will act upon what you visualize and feel.

The story of Jesus is of immortality and love. The Master pierced the darkness (for He knew it not) with His light.

Wear the glory of His ascension. He has given you His body as well as His spirit. Make this Easter your ascension also.

Authority to use the name of Sananda

By Sister Thedra

"Sori Sori: Mine hand I have placed upon thine head, and I have given unto thee the authority to use Mine name. Give unto them the name Sananda, by which they shall know Me as the Lord thy God - the Son of God sent that ye be made to know Me, the One sent from out the inner temple that there be Light in the world of men." (The meaning of "Lord God: "The Lord God, for he is "Lord" of, and responsible for, that which he has brought forth.)

"Now it is come when ones which have the will to follow Me shall come to know Me by that name which I commanded thee to give unto the world as Mine "New name." There are many that shall call upon the name of Jesus, yet they will deny the new name as they are want to do. While unto thee I give assurance that I am the One sent that there be Light in the world of men. Now let this be understood, that they that deny Mine New Name deny Me by any name. So be it I have appointed thee Mine spokesman; I've given unto thee the power and authority to speak for being that which I AM. And I say unto thee Mine child whom I have called forth and anointed thee with the Holy Spirit, thy name shall be as it is now called, Thedra - that name I spoke unto thee from out the ethers, and thou heard Me and accepted that which I gave unto thee; and wherein have I deceived thee? Wherein have I forgotten thee, or left thee alone?"

"I say unto thee, Mine hand is upon thee and I shall sustain thee and you shall come to know that which I have kept for thee. So be it that I have kept thy reward, and at no time shall it be dissipated or scattered, for it is intact. So let this Mine Word suffice them which question thee - let them question, and I shall bear witness for thee. For do I not know Mine servants from the traitor? Do I not reward Mine servants according unto their works or merits? I speak that they might know that I am mindful of Mine servants, that I am not a poor puny priest who has forgotten his servants."

A Message from Jesus (Sananda)

I rose from the cross and projected a higher intensity body, a body of light to show My mastery over death.

This you must do also.

Rise from your cross (whatever it might be) into the solar radiance of the GodSelf where I AM.

There, dwell with Me.

Project (outpicture) your body appearance as a casing subject to your will.

Then walk upon the earth as love incarnate, enjoined with Me and inclustered in the light of All-Consciousness God.

"I say unto them, Mine servants shall be glorified above the crowned heads of the nations which have set themselves apart, and denied Me Mine part of Mine word - for they have turned from Me in their conceit and forgetfulness."

"Now let this go on record as Mine Word, and I shall give unto them proof, which are of a mind to follow Me.

So be it as I have spoken and I am not finished; I shall speak again and again, and I shall rise Mine Voice against them which set foot against Mine servants, and they shall be as ones cast out. So let them ask of Me and I shall enlighten them. So be it I know where of I speak. Be ye as ones blest to accept Me and know Me for that which I AM.

A Message from Sananda (Vol. 2: 60)

The Light of God comes in many ways. It passes into you and begins Its work to create you in the image and likeness of the God Son. What a magnificent work this is! How great is the power that forms the light vessel you truly are. Vibrate now in harmony with the Christ within, your path to greatness and your blueprint through which He moves and has His expression. Realign all life in your consciousness to this place of radiation for the time has come for the EMMERGENCE!

MIRACLE ANSWERS

Miracle Answers are sent to you each and every day. These answers are the solutions to all your life's problems—from the smallest to the greatest. God loves you and hears all of your difficulties, prayers and knows all of your needs. There is not one second where He is not aware of what you are thinking and feeling. He wants to help, sends help and knows what is best for your spiritual growth. The obstacles that many face are (1) many people do not truly believe God is listening and (2) if they do believe He is listening, they don't believe they are worthy to receive a response and (3) if they do believe He is listening and believe they are worthy to receive a response, they have no idea how to listen and receive an answer. Learning to hear and apply these answers is one of the most rewarding and fulfilling gifts you can give your soul on your journey. Your soul will be lifted in joy with this learning and revelation.

Seeking Miracle Answers from God builds a stronger connection with God and brings about heaven on earth. It brings God's great presence to earth through your conscious reach for His great wisdom. This is what you have come to earth to do—to build and strengthen the connection with your God Mind/Higher Mind and as a result can only bring about miracles and happiness in your life.

Miracle Answers come in many forms. They can be direct answers or indirect answers. They can be through dreams, through intuition, through thought, through the Inner Voice, through the body, through energy, through a child, through an animal, through a book.... Nothing in life happens by chance. God is in everyone and everything—the possibilities are endless.

One thing is certain though—Miracle Answers are not of the ego as there is no ego in God. An answer from an ego may be considered good advice—most everyone gives and receives in this manner every day. But the Divine Answers—the answers that see the entire picture with absolutely no bias and a limitless amount of Wisdom and Love—come from God. These Answers come when all thoughts of ego are put aside and one's full focus is on God.

*Ye ask, and receive not,
Because ye ask amiss,
That ye may consume it upon your lusts.
(James 4:3)*

When prayers are not answered, it is important to reflect on whether the request was of the ego. Requests of the ego are not of the heart and are usually purely selfish or materialistic needs. These will likely not be answered.

Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind.

And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

(Matthew 15:14)

Jesus taught that those who are solely guided by the ego, and not by God, are the blind leading the blind. Seeking Miracle Answers through God creates vision. Revelation occurs with each answer received which brings further Truth into one's being, and a stronger connection to the God Mind/Higher Mind.

*For they loved the praise of men
More than the praise of God.
(John 12:43)*

It is the ego that persuades an individual that the praise of others is more important than the praise of God. The ego makes one believe that the praise of others is more tangible and has more reward. The ego persuades one to turn from God and causes the competitive nature to rise and desires for the material riches of the world to rise so that more praise from others can be secured. The ego makes one feel inferior—nothing is ever good enough for the ego.

God created everyone perfect. Man/woman less the ego is perfection. The spiritual journey is the straight and narrow path of releasing the negative ego and re-building the connection with the God Mind. On this path one is praising God (thanking Him for Miracle Answers), and not the ego. The rewards are far greater than any praise anyone of the world can give.

*For what shall it profit a man,
If he shall gain the whole world,
And lose his own soul?
(Mark 8:36)*

The soul loves and knows God. The soul remembers the truth of one's being. The above scripture refers to the lures of the ego, and is teaching that life is not about the accumulation of wealth for the praise of men. If a life's entire purpose is spent trying to secure the best of everything material, including relationships, one has completely lost sight of their soul. In a sense, one has lost one's soul—the connection has been broken as there is no longer anything in common. It is the soul that one departs the earth with—not the physical body and material goods. The treasures that are important to accumulate are of the heart and thus time on earth should be spent developing the soul instead of losing it to the ego. Understand that God wants everyone to be prosperous. It is the underlying intent that is purely of the ego and not of God quality that is of importance here. God would not have anyone poor. The soul wants to go home. The soul wants to unite with the Higher Mind or God Mind. The soul wants the negative ego dropped and the straight and narrow path to God followed as Jesus demonstrated. Abundance will then flow into one's life without any negative underlying motivation.

The book Miracle Answers, by Karen McOuat, leads the reader on a journey on how to hear answers from God in various forms and how to interpret them. It is a wonderful and inspiring journey, full of revelation and joy for the soul. It is a path of remembrance.

Ask and it shall be given you;

This book is about how to ask.

seek and ye shall find;

This book is about how to seek answers to everything one could possibly need – and how they will be found.

knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

(Matthew 7:7)

This book is about opening the door to miracles.

The Youth in You Speaks

I knew I wanted to become a successful professional golfer when I saw how much the world's top golfers have earned since they have turned professional. I felt that this is what I wanted to do and realized that no ordinary job would satisfy me.

I then bought a second hand set of clubs and then went to a golf driving range for practice. After a while I started to go to group lessons and later I started to have one to one lessons with the golf professional. In the spring of the following year I joined the local golf club as a junior member so that I have the opportunity to practice as often as possible. I then started entering competitions and have been very successful. My goal now is to achieve a single figure handicap and to try to qualify for the county junior team as soon as possible. I don't stop to think how I will achieve all this I just believe and know that I will.

Love from Chris (Age 14)

There is an invincible imprint of immortality which we carry. This imprint is a permanent memory code at our command.

Immortality is the I AM Presence in its natural pristine order. This is the Earth code which we are entrusted to establish and embody for the record of eternity.

This record stands impervious to challenge. from Judy Caruso

FURTHER STUDIES AND CONTEMPLATIONS ON JESUS

#22-44 Jesus' Instruction To The Initiates (Part 1): Crystal reads verses from Matthew 4 and 5. Jesus' presence is evident as the Master's words are clearly felt and readily understood. A masterpiece of revelation as Jesus/Sananda speaks directly to the initiates in plain words. Many secrets of the so called Mystery Schools and of the Ancients are in these verses. Powerful! 60 min.

A LITTLE MANIFESTATION STORY (Judy Caruso)

A woman who I've been talking with regarding building ideas happened to share an interesting experience today.

As she talked -- her name is Jennifer -- I thought of Jim Wawro and Lauren Eto because Jennifer commented that her approach to manifestation has been to write down what she has in mind.

Upon coming to Port Townsend, she felt such an affinity to the area that she and her husband decided to move to Port Townsend from Portland. They wrote down a house description, location and price that they envisioned and Jennifer started working with a local realtor. Several times, Jennifer made the four hour drive from Portland to Port Townsend to look at properties which the realtor diligently prescreened.

Weeks went by. During this time, one of Jennifer's friends in Portland quietly observed this process. Finally, Jennifer remarked to her friend that nothing seemed to be happening with the property search in Port Townsend.

Her friend responded that she had not wanted to say anything unless Jennifer brought up the situation but her friend's view was that Jennifer was not with the realtor who would locate the property which Jennifer and her husband would purchase. The friend said that the realtor for Jennifer was a man and that Jennifer would know who he was when she was with him.

Jennifer kept her friend's comments in the back of her mind. The next time that Jennifer was in Port Townsend, the name of one realtor came up 5 times within 24 hours and Jennifer had seen a property that she was considering looking at and this realtor represented the seller of that property.

Jennifer had a half day before she was to return to Portland and she decided that with such a brief time frame before departing that she would contact this realtor directly rather than going through her usual realtor. This new realtor showed her the house, observed her response and said that he would go outside and leave her alone in the house so that she would have a better feel of the property. His sensitivity corresponded with Jennifer's tendency to make decisions intuitively rather than matter of factly.

That is the property which Jennifer and her husband purchased and it has been a "perfect" choice for them.

I asked Jennifer what it was about the first realtor that blocked finding the property. That realtor, Jennifer said, was very conscientious but she kept showing Jennifer properties that fit Jennifer's description except for the price. All properties that this realtor located were at least $150,000 more than the price in Jennifer's vision.

So, Jennifer explained, the realtor didn't truly believe in Jennifer's vision as a whole.

I thought: what a reminder of staying with one's vision and of the power of agreement in manifestation.
