You are the planetary awakening. You can feel the awakening through your body and through your heart center. You are awakening with the planet and sending more light intelligence to one another, as you draw together in a circle of divine fire and universe love.

The Effects of the Awakening on Your Body

There is a natural Incoming Light from the Great Central Sun that is changing your cellular structure, just as it is Mother Earth's planetary energy field. At this time of the Resurrection, you are the Earth and you are the incoming Spiritual dimension. You are the body and you are the Spirit. And each component of your physical body denotes a living access to the spiritual dimension. When you breathe, you breathe into your system with Earth the degree of Spirit that is projected for the New World embodiment. The Higher Mind directs the peaceful and loving entrance of the Christ fire and the Solar union for the Earth and for you. Keep this in mind when you consider the Earth, her needs and your service to her. As you help Mother Earth with her ascension and alignment to the Solar Light, you are also assisting your body change into light! Be conscious of your immortal Self.

The Ring of Truth

Perfect Love casts out fear. The degree that you can alleviate fear from your subconscious, the more you are contributing to the planetary awakening and your path to immortality.

Feel the goodness of God in your body.

Stabilize your mind to accept the goodness.

Many thoughts may come of the world and its negative energy field filled with division from God or Goodness. There is no place in you or on this planet for the energy of separation from Truth or God. The Son emerges as the full translation of man into God. The Solar frequency will stand for no less.

Power centers are now open to receive the Light of God and the Christ Government through Earth. As tempting as it might be, decline from negative criticism of the present governments. The form is changing and the balance will be met in radiant love and the Creator Intelligence, the Higher Mind potential. Best that you use your energy (e-motion) to visualize the Christ Government on Earth! If you become too deeply involved in negative appearances and the emotions that are contained within these appearances, you may experience a downward slide into the appearance and the subjects involved. Do not let this happen. We, the Christ Body (Office of The Christ), depend on you to stay aligned in the Creator's Intent and spend less time on correcting the lost world. Let the dead bury the dead.

However, if you are called to descend into the lower astral planes and give help to those imprisoned, I provide an army to accompany you in this service. I call on those who are especially trained in Consciousness ascension to serve in this way for the greater good. Best to listen to the Creator within, your Inner Voice, and you will receive your direction for service in this momentous planetary awakening.

When darkness comes, you must USE your Light that is the Christ Within. Moving in that way helps Sananda and all the good People who serve now in behalf of the planetary awakening and the Solar Son.

Where I AM there is no other and each day is of Me. The false appearance dissolves in the frequency of My Spirit.

Opening the Christ Chakra

Each chakra needs adjusting to the Higher Mind circuits where I AM Lord. In the Day of the Lord, consciousness of the lower planes and separation from the GodSelf disappear and with that disappearance goes the memory of past mistakes. Karma is erased. It has to be erased to enable Mother Earth to take her place in the throne room of the Son of God. All is embraced by the Creator Son (Universe Creator) and the centers of life and light open to decree His Name.

Now, as your body and the Earth's body are, indeed, intertwined in fabric and in life energy, your consciousness and its acceleration into the Light of Christ acts as a cornerstone to the building of the New Earth Temples.

The immortal body moves in tune to the Creator's plan. And it does not veer from its course of becoming the Creator's body, the emanation of the Solar dimension and the vessel for the Emergence. Living in the Truth Circuits of the Melchizedek Order enables you, the initiate, to cross quickly from one dimensional field to another. Passages open to you that are not available to those who have not lifted their awareness and their disciplines to this Order of Perfect Man. In other words, paths both on this earth and throughout the heavens are open to you as a Melchizedek. (That is your control level.) And please remember that a Melchizedek, one who is of this Order, can come and go in many realms of Being. A Melchizedek priest or priestess knows the Way and is an Immortal. A Melchizedek is without birth or death.

This is a time for your awakening. And as you awaken, you bear an influence upon the Earth. All comes to pass through your consciousness in the One field I AM. If your roots are in Melchizedek you will know that what I am saying is accurate.

There will be centers on this Earth that will awaken and become Temples of Living Light. (Temples of Living Light are Temples that contain within them the maximum Spirit Fire allotted to this Earth according to divine governance and the Office of the Cosmic Christ.)

Your heart center (chakra) is the Beginning. A Seal has been placed upon the Innermost Heart so that only the sincere chela can open the door and proceed into the chamber of Divine Wisdom. Did I not say that I stand at the door and knock? There is a purpose for the protective shield, which forms the door of the heart. Without that shield, cosmic energy could be released that would cause great harm to the Earth and to the disciple. You must build strength to go through that door, where you will be received by the Holy Ministry of The Christ and sealed with His orders.

Consider for a moment the seeming effects of the sun's rays and its impact on your health. There is a similarity between the heart center within you and the sun's rays, for both are connected and joined. There are two degrees to the Sun. One is on the physical plane and the other is within the heart chakra. The Sun becomes your friend and you access its energy when you have passed through the door of the Innermost Heart, broken the Seal, and stand before He Who Is Present in Embodiment as the Solar Lord. When you have contained that degree of Solar Power held within the Innermost Heart, then you can access the Sun's Rays to protect you, cleanse you, and heal you. The Morning Dawn greets you in a new way, and Solar Angels eagerly press against you to serve with you in the glory of God's Plan.

The Day of Compassion

And now the lifting begins, for the Day of Compassion is come upon you. The wondrous, glorious day that enables you to see and to hear the radiance of I AM! What has been blocked and smothered by false teaching and cruel governance disappears in the blazing glory of My Son's Life in you as the Light I AM.

Power circuits are accelerating to move our planet Earth into the Sun or CHRIST VIBRATION. This is the solar energy We¹ have been waiting for that We may access the clear records of a new generation - brought to Earth to Be.

The elevation of this planet is essential to bring about the wedding of the Christ Energy and the new dispensation of NO DEATH.

The power circuits are on! Be aware! Let the natural upsurge of the new vibrating Presence connect you consciously into your place in the SUN or Christ dimension.

These are the worlds of light that I speak of. I have brought you into a new creation as models of My form and people of My Soul.

The University Papers, brought to you over many years, have prepared you for this beautiful change of frequency that is incoming at this moment. You are now ready to drop the false shell and deliver into the reality circuits the Christ dimension of body, mind, and spirit-soul. This is a day of revelation; it is a time of creative magic when all things are lifted and made anew. Now lift your spirit high so that you can catch My world of light and remain stabilized as that dimension of higher frequency power.

Do not hang onto anything alive or dead. Take only that which you are and be clothed in the light of higher dimensional love and light. Be claimed by Me as Daughter and Son of God-Truth.

Claim now your place in the Sun and do not waiver. I have come! And I AM the resurrection and the Life.

Crossing the Boundaries of Time

When error claims you, forget the error and come home to Me. In Me there can be no error. I have come that I might place Myself in you as you.

Hear My Voice; think with My thought; be still and know that I AM God in you.

The sacred body of light must manifest now. It is like the sun. Bear that in mind. Be clothed in it. The sacred sun is your dimensional frequency. It is your guide to higher frequency.

In this world (third dimension) the sun is not understood. For the Great Son of God emerges through the sun of man. The Christ heart within man is the divine complement of the sun you see in the sky. The sun in the sky is the heart chakra of planet Earth. It is there you see the light and grow from that light. The sun in your heart chakra or center carries the Christ Seed, your divine identity just as the sun in the sky carries the burning image of the true Christ for planet Earth.

And when you change your consciousness of the sun and know the Son first in your heart, then acknowledge it in the sun of the sky, you move to the Christ Center or Solar dimension. This power change can initiate a change in body. It can bring it to greater light. As you change your awareness of the physical/etheric sun that shines over earth, you will immediately change your dimension.

Invite the blessed rays of the solar sun, our "physical sun," to fill every cell of your body, both physical and etheric. Gratefully acknowledge the sun as LIFE and see through the veil into the very face of the sun. See the Solar King!

The Life-giving essence of the sun (the Great Sun) activates the solar body, the solar radiation through you and death is no more.

Let the nature of the sun be truly known. For the sun itself - our physical (what we see as physical) sun - designs the new body of light. From the sun will come new secrets as well as ancient knowledge stored within the sun herself. Cross the boundaries of time as the sun or solar stream completely dissolves the past to be remembered no more.

Our blessed sun is not what it appears to be. It is the divine light of the Creator Him-Herself. It is the Solar Christ beckoning us into our hearts and minds that we, too, might shine as a sun, the light of God.

By degrees do you open. By degrees do you understand.

A Broadcast and Announcement
8 p.m. December 10, 2007

This Broadcast and meditation was not recorded. What I am writing is what did occur on this, the second night, of the opening of the Seven Schools or Gates of Melchizedek.

I began with sounding the "Om" three times. Then Quiet descended. The quality of Quiet before the Voice is spoken and heard. I presented the Order of Mary to the Melchizedek Office. Mary spoke as World Mother as she, in turn, introduced Her Daughters to be recognized and ordained. This was done. Mary wore the white robes of Her Office as World Mother.

My focus was on the hills of Jerusalem. I broadcast forth the love that filled the hills and land. This was followed by the announcement that the seal was broken on the Jerusalem vortex and it was gently opening. This vortex was the seat of Love and as the energy of Love was released through this portal or Seat of Melchizedek, the Love essence began to flow across the borders of the lands. I could see and feel the Love soothing the tortured souls, the suffering, and quieting the fears.

Then came the recognition and acknowledgment of the great mystical teachers and Rabbis who understand that the real Jerusalem was not a city but a mystical climate of higher learning and union with God - a City of Light, not made by human hands but an energy field of great light to be shared by all. It is the Christ Center.

The call then was for the opening and return of the First Melchizedek School of Salem. And the Gate swung wide in acknowledgment of this.

The Peace and Love that I experienced in this opening ceremony is still with me: Jerusalem - the New Jerusalem - City of Love and Light. I feel, having visited both Israel (land of the Awakening) and the West Bank many times, as though these lands have been lifted into a whole new dimension. The Messiah has come.... The Heart and Compassion of God.

Assignment Earth

Speak to them now that we are a family - that in order to survive, humanity must consciously realize the family of life!

This must extend beyond borders of ancient history, religious beliefs, and cultural heritage. In order to save the planet and ourselves we must change our identity - we must care for one another from Australia to Africa. We must unite as a human family and embrace all life with compassionate caring.

We must surrender our human ego, our racial ego, and our national ego so that we can enter the fire of humanity. We must go further and deeper into the web of life and there join our hands as one. That is our assignment and Earth says, "Now."
